

The Challenge of Change

Change management
Build capability
Performance
Processes
People

Part sponsored by

Invest
Northern Ireland

...a series of practical workshops

WHITEWATER

C O N S U L T I N G

The Challenge of Change

*A series of practitioner workshops, for those involved in creating and sustaining organisational change.
Facilitated by Whitewater Consulting.*

-
- 21 January 2005 Ken Newell, The Moderator of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland:
“The Social Impact of Personal Change.”
-
- 11 March 2005 Jim Drennan, Director of Training and Development, PSNI:
“The Resistance and Challenges of Change, Leading and Learning in the PSNI.”
-
- 6 May 2005 Aine Maria Mizzoni, MD, Grafton:
“Managing Change and Developing Capability in an International Organisation.”
-
- 24 June 2005 Steve Parry: The use of Lean Service in driving change in organisations. “Challenging assumptions, breaking mindsets and transforming organisations”, Stephen Parry is an award winning Customer Service Strategist and Corporate Transformation Expert.
-
- 2 September 2005 Sheila Fleming, Head of Human Resources, Liberty IT :
“Managing Performance in a High Growth, High Performance Organisation ...”
-
- 28 October 2005 Lawrence Jackson, Head of HR, Bank of Ireland:
“The Human Side of IT Transformation.”
-
- 9 December 2005 Philip Lennon, HR, Bombardier Aerospace:
“Best Practice in Managing Rightsizing.”
-

Additional Information: Events are held on company site, where possible and commence at 9.00am sharp through to circa 11am. Each session comprises ● continental breakfast ● networking opportunities ● Main presentation ● Q&A session ● Facilitated group discussion

A nominal cost of £350 covering admin, facilities and catering, entitles you or a team member to attend all of the sessions.

To reserve your season ticket please contact Nicola by 17 December 2004 at email nicola@whitewaterconsult.com or by phone on 028 9061 8067